Dollar Value
$300,000 - $500,000

MAIG was contracted by an IT-specialized large federal defense agency that is headquartered in Maryland to provide sign language interpreting services in a secure environment to Deaf and hard of hearing employees, applicants, and visitors. MAIG also provided specialized CART realtime captioning services, both remote and onsite, for training classes, large meetings, and other special events. To fulfill the requirements of the contract, MAIG provided interpreting and other support services to nine Deaf and hard of hearing employees.

Dollar Value
$7,000,000 - $10,000,000

MAIG was contracted by a large federal geospatial intelligence agency that is headquartered in Virginia to provide sign language interpreting services, in a secure environment, to Deaf and hard of hearing employees, applicants, interns, and visitors. MAIG supports more than twenty Deaf and hard of hearing employees. We provide daily onsite services, CONUS and OCONUS interpreting, and CART support at multiple federal facilities both inside and outside of the National Capital Region.

Dollar Value
$150,000 - $300,000

MAIG was subcontracted by a large aerospace federal contractor for a federal agency to support the technical communication needs of a senior team of Deaf and hearing network engineers that are responsible for the design, planning, testing, integration, and implementation of global network systems. This required mastery of highly specialized communications skills, and complex and technical vernacular, acronyms, and sensitive systems.
